Former members of the Peace Corps may be considered for ODNI employment only if five full years have elapsed since separation from the Peace Corps.

- For a cadre assignment:
 - Current ODNI cadre.
 - Current ODNI Staff Reserve Employees. (A staff reserve employee who currently occupies this position may not apply.)
- For a detailee assignment:
 - Current Federal Government employees.

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) leads the development, negotiation, and presentation of the National Intelligence Program (NIP) budget to the President and the Congress. The CFO's three main responsibilities include resource management (budget analysis, formulation, justification, and execution), performance planning and evaluation, and financial management improvement.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead the development of tools, methodologies, and databases to support IC performance management and cross program analysis efforts.
- Lead IC working group initiatives to develop and evaluate IC-wide performance measures.
- Examine, analyze, develop, and present a variety of budget and performance results, briefings, and other pertinent communication.
- In direct support of the Intelligence Community Chief Financial Officer, provide strategic recommendations for the implementation of short and long-term policies and procedures affecting IC-wide performance management and resources.
- Lead the IC performance management process, develop, direct and coordinate processes to monitor performance of intelligence activities across the IC and evaluate results to ensure adherence with current national security missions and priorities.
- Identify, evaluate, and recommend innovative solutions to complex issues pertaining to performance throughout the IC.
- Oversee the integration of the IC portion of the administration's management agenda efforts, including the semi-annual high priority goal report for improving government management and performance.
- Oversee the development and production of ODNI publications such as the Annual Performance Plans/Annual Performance Reports, and the IC's Annual Summary of Performance and Financial Information Report.
- Lead, manage, and direct a professional level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Demonstrated expert ability to evaluate and integrate viewpoints into an IC perspective to increase understanding of key issues based on new information and introduce alternative perspectives.
- Expert knowledge of research methodologies to evaluate intelligence programs, analyze issues, and make recommendations to leadership.
- Advanced research, writing and briefing skills, and the ability to produce quality intelligence products.
- Expert oral and written communication skills including ability to manage competing priorities, under strict deadlines, while maintaining a high-level of attention to detail to clearly convey complex information.
- Expert critical thinking and reasoning skills required to prepare intelligence assessments and present clear, concise and logical solutions to all levels of management
- Substantive knowledge or experience working with Federal and private industry budget performance integration and performance management to include metric development models and methodologies.
- Substantive knowledge or experience with Intelligence Community planning, programming, budgeting and executing processes.
- Expert leadership and managerial capabilities, including the ability to effectively direct taskings, assess and manage performance, and support personal and professional development of all levels of personnel.
